ALL CHICAGO IN MOURNING FOR VICTIMS OF EASTLAND HORROR

CHICAGO, July 26.—The city has opened its heart and purse in aid of the Eastland disaster sufferers.

The Red Cross has $500,000 to aid in the rescue work.

The municipality is in general charge of the work. A dozen special committees of nurses and employees of the city welfare department, besides scores of volunteers, are working.

President Thayer of the Western Electric Company contributed $100,000 and Mayor Thompson pledged $1000. Theaters expect to raise $50,000 by a monster benefit at the Auditorium Friday. The city of Cicero, where the Western electric plant is located, donated $2000.

Hundreds of clergymen have arrived and are volunteering their services for the funerals Wednesday. The St. Paul railroad announces it will carry the mourners and bodies to the cemeteries free.

Heartsick survivors dragged themselves to their desks at the Western Electric plant at the usual time this morning. The officials explained that the employees had been told to report in the hope that the losses could be tabulated.

The employees entered weeping bitterly. Every department mourned the loss of several.

Occasionally a storm of weeping swept the entire plant. All pretense of work was abandoned and many collapsed and were carried home. Women and girls became hysterical.

A big crowd surrounded the plant seeking the victim's jobs.

A special grand jury today began investigating the Eastland disaster.

Charles H. Westcott, the federal inspector who issued the license permitting the Eastland to carry 2500 passengers, is being questioned.

The steamship inspection service is heavily criticized on all sides.

The district attorney declares he will prove that the federal inspectors knew the Eastland to be unsafe.

The known dead total 820 and the missing 456. Four hundred bodies are believed to be under the hull, bringing the total of victims up to 1200.

SISTER OF PORTLAND WOMAN BELIEVED TO BE DEAD

Portland, Ore., July 26.—Mrs. Erna Schultz fears her sister, Mrs. J. Adler, died in the Eastland disaster. Mrs. Adler's husband was foreman of the Western Electric Company and she seldom missed the excursions. A telegram inquiring as to her fate, has not been answered.

NEW YORK, July 26.—The Fire Island wireless station officials today discredited the report that the S. O. S. calls received last night came from the liner Orduna, sailing from New York to Liverpool, carrying munitions and passengers.

The Orduna is 1200 miles out. The signals came from an auxiliary wireless set with a 200-mile radius.

ST. PAUL CITY DADS REFUSE TO LICENSE CATS SAME AS DOGS

ST. PAUL, July 26.—When the city council was contemplating license for dogs, a woman wrote asking that cats be also placed under the law. The reason she assigned was that cats in her neighborhood were so numerous that they ate up all the birds which could not in turn eat up all the worms which were eating up all the leaves of the beautiful trees. The council declined to listen to her plea.

RUSSIANS READY FOR LAST FIGHT BEFORE FALL OF WARSAW

BERLIN, July 26.—The Russians are today preparing for their last stand before the fall of Warsaw. Grand Duke Nicholas notified the allies on Saturday that he was withdrawing to the River Bug defenses. Swiss correspondents with the Germans agree the Russians are already defeated.

It is predicted the allies will soon feel the weight of a new German offensive on the west front.

GERMANS ARE INDIGNANT AT AMERICAN NOTE

BERLIN, July 26.—The German people unanimously approve the editorial opinion of Berlin newspapers concerning the American note.

There is a general feeling of surprise that America has failed to grasp the German viewpoint regarding submarine.

The statement that further submarine affecting Americans will be regarded as "deliberately unfriendly" caused intense indignation among Germans who will not sanction the abridgment of submarine.

The prevailing sentiment favors a firm German reply reasserting the German viewpoint.

The leading newspapers unite in declaring that submarine must not be abandoned. They express surprise at America's failure to accept Germany's suggestions.

The Vossische Zeitung says: "The refusal to accept Germany's practical proposals for the safeguarding of American passengers shows an absolute lack of readiness to understand the German standpoint."

Those who demand that Germany conduct the war according to the rules of an academic professor expect Germany to either endanger her submarines or abandon submarine, which means the weakening of Germany to England's advantage."

The Tagblatt says: "The note proves that pro-British interests have gained the upper hand in Wilson's circle. It clearly shows the American government prefers the crippling of our submarine war to the safeguarding of Americans."

SEMI-OFFICIAL WASHINGTON FEELS PESSIMISTIC

WASHINGTON, July 26.—Reports of a violent renewal of German submarine, resulting in the destruction of several British vessels is regarded here as indicating that Germany intends to disregard American wishes. Semi-official comment is largely pessimistic.

Optimists believe the Germans will soon forget their annoyance at the peremptory tone of the note.

ATHENS, July 26.—Unofficial dispatches today report that a British submarine penetrated the sea of Marmora the other day and sank two Turkish gun boats, one transport and one ammunition steamer.

He admitted that it would delay the administration's new note protesting

This morning at about 9 o'clock occurred the first arrest for violation of the non-smoking clause in the new city law. Officer Ryan arrested Ralph Johnston at the corner of Third and Main streets. Johnston was driving a Star stage. He was smoking, according to Officer Ryan.

Later, in City Recorder Willson's court, Johnston was fined $3.

The Lellanaw was carrying a cargo of flax from Archangel to British ports.

The Lellanaw was engaged ten years plying between San Francisco, Puget Sound and Alaska.

Later dispatches assert that the submarine halted the Lellanaw before sinking her. On ascertaining that she was carrying flax the submarine commander declared the cargo contraband of war. The steamer's crew was ordered into the boats and the ship torpedoed.

The American consul at Dundee, Scotland, has confirmed the torpedoing of the Lellanaw.

If official reports sustain the press reports that the Lellanaw was visited and searched before being torpedoed, the incident will not precipitate any American-German crisis. The case will then be identical with that of the William P. Frye, sunk several months ago.

NARROW ESCAPES FROM INJURY IN AUTO MISHAPS NUMEROUS

Numbers of people had narrow escapes from injury in a series of automobile accidents in various parts of the county during Saturday evening and Sunday.

None of the mishaps were of a serious nature. Several automobiles were considerably damaged and one woman sustained a broken wrist.

Automobiles Collide On East Fourth Street

An automobile driven by John Eckert, a contractor and builder of 3326 South Grand avenue, Los Angeles, collided with the rear end of a car driven by Sherman Emmett, who lives near Irvine. The accident occurred on East Fourth street in front of the Orange County Garage Company's building yesterday morning at about 8:30.

Emmett was driving east on Fourth street. He says he signalled that he was going to turn into the entrance of the Orange County Garage. He says that Eckert either did not see or disregarded the signal and that Eckert ran into the rear of Emmett's car.

Both automobiles were considerably damaged. The front wheel of Eckert's automobile was thrown out of true and the fender bent. No one was hurt.

Avoids Crash By Driving Car Over a Ditch

Speeding along the state highway south of Tustin yesterday afternoon at about 4:30, R. E. Mackley of 519 Front street, San Pedro, driving a Hudson car, drove over an embankment and into an orchard in order to avoid colliding with two other cars he was attempting to pass. Mackley's car plowed along the soft dirt in the orchard for a distance of about fifty feet and stopped when it struck a walnut tree. None of the passengers was thrown out. The car was considerably damaged.

Fears Auto Fire; Jumps; Wrist Is Fractured

Becoming alarmed when she believed that the automobile in which she was riding was about to catch fire, Mrs. L. L. Martin, who lives in Los Angeles, jumped from the car yesterday and sustained a fracture of the left wrist. The accident occurred on one of the downtown streets. It is not known what caused Mrs. Martin to think the machine was in danger of fire.

One Hits Phone Pole; Other Turns Over

Two automobiles were damaged in a mix-up that occurred on the state highway at La Habra yesterday. J. D. Spennetta, manager of the Foothill Valencia Grocers packing house of Orange, was traveling toward Los Angeles and had just passed a wagon of hay when a Ford automobile driven by the son of Postmaster Edwards of Fullerton came off a side street. The Ford had been hidden by the hay wagon until the two machines were almost together.

In attempting to avoid a collision the Ford turned so sharply that it turned over. Edwards and a young woman who was with him were not hurt.

Spennetta turned to his left off the road, and came to a stop against a telephone pole, which smashed his windshield and tore the top of the automobile. Spennetta had one hand slightly cut, but was otherwise uninjured.

Stage Slightly Damaged
According to word received by the local police from City Marshal Porter of Newport Beach, an automobile containing four persons, alleged to have been intoxicated, ran into the rear end of Crown stage No. 15, driven by Marvin Hart of Santa Ana. The accident occurred Saturday evening near the bridge across Newport Bay. The stage was only slightly damaged.

STORY TELLING VERY POPULAR WITH LITTLE FOLKS

The children of Santa Ana enjoyed a rare treat Saturday and "Story Telling Day" is becoming very popular. Classes from the fourth to the eighth grades met at the Intermediate school where Mrs. Wicks delightfully told the story of "Tito," by Ernest Thompson Seton.

After a recreation period Miss Bemus entertained with the beautiful story of the opera "Madame Butterfly." At Washington school children from the third grade down to the kindergartens, assembled and they enjoyed the comical little tale of "Epaminondas" and many other kindergarten favorites, for Miss Hill has a "way" with youngsters that cannot be excelled.

Next Saturday Miss Henry, the teacher who had charge of the story telling department during night school, will supervise the program given for the older children at the Intermediate school while the younger children will be entertained by Mrs. Violet and Miss Adeline Hill at Washington school.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR A REMARKABLE MAN HELD YESTERDAY

Simple services marked the funeral ceremonies held yesterday afternoon for David Hewes at the Presbyterian church at Orange. The faith of the pioneer in the face of defeat, his indomitable spirit, his love of the beautiful, his gifts to the people—these were some of the things touched upon in the remarks of the two ministers who had charge of the services.

The auditorium of the church was filled when Rev. James H. Speer, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Orange, offered prayer. This was followed by "Fading, Still Fading," a duet, mentioned in Mr. Hewes' memoirs.

Before reading a psalm, Rev. W. S. McDougal, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Tustin, said that he desired to say a few words showing what David Hewes had done for the little church at Tustin.

"We like to think," said the minister, that he and his wife made it possible for the church to be built. He always took a great interest in the church, yet he never spoiled his child. He was ever ready, however, with the helping hand."

"One Sweetly Solemn Thought" was beautifully sung by Mrs. James S. Rice of Tustin.

"We are gathered here to pay tribute to a remarkable man," said Rev. Speer of Orange. "From his life we can gather many lessons. I shall point you first to his faith, and in that I mean his faith in material things, as well as spiritual things. It is easy enough for an ordinary person to take up a work in an established country and finish it, but it takes a man of strength and faith to be a pioneer such as David Hewes was."

"He smiled in the face of failure, and began again and succeeded. Though he failed in Sacramento, he went to San Francisco and started again. It took faith to build railroads into this undeveloped western country. David Hewes was one of those who had that kind of faith and vision."

Rev. Speer spoke of the fact that the beautiful memorial window of the church was the gift of Mr. Hewes. The funeral services closed with singing "Lead Kindly Light." The remains of Mr. Hewes were brought to Smith & Tutill's chapel in Santa Ana, following the funeral, and yesterday afternoon were shipped to Oakland, where interment will be made. The remains were accompanied by a grandnephew, Granville D. Abbott of Oakland.

The pallbearers were D. Eymann Huff, manager of the Orange County Fruit Exchange, through which Mr. Hewes' citrus fruit has been shipped, and George E. Preble of Santa Ana, E. J. Cranston of Tustin, Ross Folger of Orange, R. G. Frasier of Pasadena, landscape architect who had charge of laying out Hewes Park, and Donald Barker of Los Angeles, Mr. Hewes' attorney.

SOON TO START WORK ON SANTIAGO BRIDGE

Orange News: President DeWard of the Holland Construction Company has been in Orange the past few days arranging for starting work on the East Chapman avenue bridge early next week.

The contract was awarded to this company July 12, and suitable bond, approved by City Attorney Garrett and District Attorney West, has been secured. When this bond is approved by the council Monday evening, the last formality will have been cleared away. Work will commence immediately.

Mr. DeWard has informed Attorney Garrett that local men will be employed on the work as far as possible.

Street Superintendent Buchanan has completed a detour road on the north side of the present bridge, oiling it, and is preparing to string lights above it, so that everything will be ready to accommodate traffic when the old bridge is torn down next week. The wiring, owned by the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association, has been loaned to the city for use in temporarily lighting the new road.

RANGER'S DEAD HORSE PAID FOR BY UNIQUE INSURANCE CO.

The San Francisco office of the Forest Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, has issued the following:

Check No. 1 for $100 has been issued by the Horse Insurance Association of the U. S. Forest Service in payment of the claim of Ranger J. E. Stephenson of El Toro, stationed on the Cleveland National Forest in Southern California. One of Stephenson's horses was recently injured. The animal was taken to Dr. Price's veterinary establishment in Santa Ana, where it was cared for for a month. The injury was such that the horse had to be shot. The payment to the ranger includes the veterinary bill. Satisfactory proof of loss was made to association headquarters in San Francisco and prompt payment was made to Ranger Stephenson.

This insurance association is not a government institution, but was recently formed by the forest rangers of the California-Nevada district of the federal forest service for the purpose of distributing the loss that occurs when saddle and pack animals owned by its members are killed or disabled. It is purely mutual in character, funds to pay losses being provided by means of a small quarterly assessment. All forest officers of the district are eligible for membership in the association, each member being assessed a small amount to provide a fund from which to pay loss. The amount of the assessment depends on the losses incurred during a quarterly period.

At present over 200 horses are insured and it is expected that this number will be greatly increased during the summer, when the forest force will reach its maximum strength of from 800 to 900 men.

People More Confident

ROME, July 26.—It is reliably stated today that Italy will not agree to the selection of the Pope as a member of the peace council to end the European war.

The combination of other nations may force the selection of the Pope against Italian wishes. Recent published interviews with the Pope made him undesirable in Italian minds.

If the Pope is selected over Italy's protests the peace congress may be held at the Vatican.

Talks to Farmers How Much Interest Do You Net Upon the Valuation of Your Land?

After deducting all working expenses, your time and labor, how much do you net per acre per year? 1 per cent, 5 per cent, or 10 per cent? What is the value of your land, $500, $750, or $1000 per acre? How much do you pay for your water, and how much water do you get for what you pay?

If you could buy land much closer in to a much bigger, faster growing city than where you are living at the present time, with better transportation facilities, better stores, amusement and education, as good or better climate than where you are now, and know that the land would net you conservatively 25 per cent per year, where you could grow all the things you are growing at the present time of a superior quality and with better organized markets to buy your produce at higher prices and you could get all the water that you want delivered to your land by ditch at a flat rate of $1.00 per acre per year, and you could buy that land in California at $200.00 per acre, practically on your own terms, you would be interested, would you not?

THIS is exactly and truthfully what I have got to offer if you are interested in farming, you owe it to yourself and your family to invest where they can be the most happy and contented and you can make the largest possible profit from the smallest investment. I have a little booklet dealing on this land "FUNDAMENTAL FARMING FACTS" that will be of vital interest to you and may mean your whole future success, call in or write and I will be glad to give you one. THIS is your opportunity to make a success. Will you grasp it?

WOMAN, ALLEGED TO BE INSANE, TAKEN FROM TRAIN AT SANTA FE

In response to a telephone call from Agent F. T. Smith of the Santa Fe, Officer Ryan went down to the Santa Fe station yesterday afternoon and took into custody Mrs. C. R. Stewart, an alleged insane person. She arrived at the station on Train No. 76. She talks to herself continuously.

Sheriff Jackson sent a night wire to C. D. Stewart, Chandler, Arizona, believed to be the woman's husband, but has not yet received a reply. Mrs. Stewart had a letter in her effects from this address.

Mrs. Stewart formerly lived at 222 East First street, Los Angeles. Nothing is known of her at this address, however, according to Sheriff Jackson.

UNCEASING MISERY

Some Santa Ana Kidney Sufferers Get Little Rest or Comfort

There is little sleep, little rest, little peace for many a sufferer from kidney trouble. Life is one continual round of pain. You can't rest at night when there's kidney backache. You suffer twinges and "stabs" of pain, annoying urinary disorders, lameness and nervousness. You can't be comfortable at work with darting pains and blinding dizzy spells. Neglect these ailments and serious troubles may follow. Begin using Doan's Kidney Pills at the first sign of disorder. Thousands have testified to their merit.

Proof in Santa Ana testimony: Mrs. Cynthia M. Madison, 901 E. Sixth St., Santa Ana, says: "I was feeling very poorly in every way. My kidneys showed signs of weakness. Doan's Kidney Pills helped me and gave such satisfactory results that I have never hesitated to speak a good word for them." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Madison had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Advertisement.

Readily Show Appreciation of Greatest Offer Ever Made By Any Newspaper

Those who started to clip certificates from the Register a week ago can now testify to the true merits of the great offer, for the Bible distribution started off with immediate satisfaction to all concerned. All who got their Bibles are proudly showing them to their friends, and commendations and congratulations are already pouring into this office.

It makes no difference how many Bibles you may now have, you will want this one, anyway, for it is illustrated as no other Bible in the world is. The picture for each particular verse or subject taken up is inserted with the type, so that it corresponds with the accompanying text matter. The publishers expended $50,000 for this work alone, and besides they selected the most appropriate of the famous Tissot collection, and these are reproduced in colors and inserted in their proper places throughout the volume. The result is a grand work of art which cannot be surpassed.

If you have not yet started to save certificates, begin today and lose no further time, for you will never have another opportunity like this, and at the rate they are now going the supply will soon be exhausted.

Today's certificate is printed elsewhere. Clip it at once or somebody else will get ahead of you.

Now is the time to enter the Orange County Business College.

DIET UNDER WAR CONDI-TIONS

The European war has changed the supply of readily available foods, and brought about an enforced movement toward a partial vegetarian diet, in place of the more extensive use of meats, eggs, butter and wheat products. These changes, being the subject of governmental regulation and enforcement, place new restrictions on the dietary of the sick. It sounds strange to our ears to hear that patients are actually required to have a prescription or permit to enable them to procure wheat flour or wheat bread for the preparation of toast. The refinements of cookery, along with the modern milling of the various grains and the preparation of dried vegetables, are likely to eliminate in part the wide distinctions between animal and vegetable products. This is in harmony with the success of numerous sanatoriums conducted on vegetarian principles in matters of diet.

The various devices of the German army for furnishing suitable food to the troops in action are responsible for the unimpaired health of many persons. Fresh meats, potatoes and vegetables poorly cooked by the individual soldier under the stress of army conditions are certain to lead to dyspeptic diarrheas and irritations, the forerunners of infectious invasion. Experience in former wars abundantly verifies this statement, says The Journal of the American Medical Association. But the present field kitchens of the German army, the "Gulaschkanonen," as they have been fancifully called, have furnished foods that are cooked with great thoroughness, so that they are readily comminuted and then easily digested. The lessons of this diet service may well appeal to us.

WORLD DESIRE

We are, perhaps with some reason, astonished at the outburst of German lust for world conquest. The strong light has been thrown on it by this war, but we have been getting glimpses of the growing strength of the world-desire for years. And we have been amazed, as we always are at all new and unusual manifestations of strength. We have wondered at finding the long arm of the Kaiser in South Africa, in Asia, in the Arctic, in the jungles of Central Africa. We have felt affronted when Germany threatened to plunge Europe into war over a question of dominating a few sun-blistered ports in Morocco.

Possibly we should have been angry because the peace of the world was threatened, or jealous because some future rights of the United States might be affected. But it was the unusual that impressed us, rather than the threatened wrong. For this long arm has been dominating the world for many generations, and we have been so used to the sight that we have thought nothing of it. Only, instead of being German, it was British.

Kipling in one of his poems tells us of the British spirit. Whether following in the footsteps of Clive and Hastings in India, whether building with Rhodes in South Africa, supplanting the Maoris in New Zealand, exploring the Orinoco, following the Athabasca to its sink near the magnetic pole, locking the Mediterranean with Gibraltar, opening it at Suez, yoking the continent of Australia—dominating the whole world from Threadneedle to Downing—the Germans have seen all these things done, and they have thought they could do them and do them better. They have seen a vision, a vision of German efficiency added to English enterprise. It has caused a war. We should not be surprised.

An American traveling recently in Asia Minor, tells of finding, hidden in the hills of Anatolia, a German engineer, building a road. The road was ancient. Since the dawn of history it had followed over a hill by a kinky route originally laid out by a footsore donkey. But the German, after a hundred centuries, was straightening it. Why? Where there had been six kinks and as many steep rises, German efficiency had substituted just one turn and a six per cent grade. Along the road there thundered a troop of Turkish cavalry. Possibly their commander had just come from the mountain of Van, where he had been stirring up the Kurds to slaughter Armenians.

Or possibly they were on their way to Syria to see that the Jews had a chance to escape with their lives from the rioting Moslems of the Holy Land. Whatever it was, this German was not altering this road of ten thousand years just to give a Turkish troop a speedier trip to some petty butchery of Little Asia. This German engineer, like the agents of the Kaiser in every other part of the world, was imitating or outdoing the wealth of the British empire. Not Turkey, but Germany, shall profit.

It will take another philosophy to save the world from both of these world hungerers. The world should make use of German efficiency, just as it has profited by the enterprise of the British. But it should not pay to either the exorbitant price of submission. Just as the whole world is now, every day, paying the price of the European war, so the whole world has been paying the price for British enterprise and will pay it for German efficiency. We must make sure that the cost is not too high.

It may be well that America can be the determining factor in this, as she has been in other world problems. America has already set the example of unselfish political interference. She freed Cuba. She developed the Philippine Islands. She was the only nation that set no price upon the Boxer atrocities. She has now fed Belgium. She has saved the Serbian nation from death by typhus fever.

Why should she not lead the way for the rest of the world in the lesson of self government? Need altruism always have its price?—Fresno Republican.

British War Loan

It was officially announced Wednesday that the subscriptions to the great British war loan reached a total of almost $200,000,000 ($200,000,000). The total subscription amounted to close to $200,000,000, according to the statement made by Reginald McKenna, the chancellor of the exchequer, in the house of commons. The total number of subscriptions through the Bank of England was 2,850,000,000. The subscriptions through the postoffice have not yet closed, but up to date 547,000 persons have subscribed $75,000,000 through this channel. No figures are available as to the number of small vouchers taken out.

This gigantic total represents only new money. It does not include any stock which will be issued for the purposes of conversion. This huge sum of nearly $200,000,000—far and away the largest amount subscribed in the history of the world—has only been obtained by the patriotic response of the whole people. It is a declaration to our enemies and our allies that this united government will prove faithful to its trust and to the cause of the allies.

Business Conditions Excellent

"Business conditions are becoming excellent and this section is certainly keeping pace with them." This is the optimistic utterance of William W. McClench, president of the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company, who was a Los Angeles visitor this week. He was a guest of F. E. McMullen, general agent of the company, at a luncheon at the Los Angeles Athletic Club, and made a prosperity talk. Said he: "I am delighted with what I have discovered out here, and I want to assure you gentlemen that our company will be ready within a few months to make real estate loans in this territory. You have a wonderful country out here and extraordinary possibilities. A year ago the company made its initial appearance in the Southern California loan field when it purchased $100,000 worth of aqueduct bonds."

Enforcing Blue Sky Law

Enforcement of the Blue Sky law by the California corporation department has cost the state only $3.96 for the first six months it has been in operation, according to figures given out this week. The department began with an appropriation of $10,000, but this amount is intact, save for the sum mentioned, the department having been supported by fees. Its expenses have amounted to $11,724.01, and its fees to $11,728.05. The maximum stock fee amounts to $25 and the minimum to $5.

A Refutation of Pessimism
Wrote that arch pessimist, Schopenhauer: "In trials and misfortunes of any kind it is ever a great comfort to hear of somebody who is worse off."

But that is, figuratively speaking, giving the old world a black eye. And nobody, of course, in optimistic, idealistic America believes in the truth of Schopenhauer's assertion.

Last winter the storm "smote again" our Venice-by-the-Sea—and some other places. Caving in some embankments, the Pacific requisitioned a few cottages. At about the same time the Atlantic Ocean virtually obliterated a sea resort on the New Jersey coast.

A Los Angeles morning paper gave space, in its news columns, to a description of the havoc wrought. And the heading of the article read: "In trials and," no, no—that's only pessimistic stuff emanating from Schopenhauer.

Here it is: "Cheer up, Venice; Seabright is in a much worse fix."

In that little European country whose edges had to be turned up to keep out the North Sea, paper has become so scarce, and consequently so dear, that now the daily news is printed on something closely resembling the A. P. flimsy. But the worst, from the standpoint of many, is that good reporters over there now think that they are doing well financially when the weekly pay amounts to 12 gulden (somewhat under $5).

There is a Sybaritic imagination that can lift itself above the unpossessing actualities of daily existence. Let us hope that an imagination like unto that cultivated by the former burgers of Sybaris is the possession of those $5 scribers.

A weekly paper in the east, devoted to the interests of writers, learned from one of its subscribers about the devastation caused by the war among the pocketbooks of the Dutch scribblers. This weekly commented on this matter under the heading: "In trials and,"—no, no—(strange how Schopenhauer obtrudes.) Here it is: "Cheer up, ye scribers; in Europe good writers are glad to get $5 weekly."

Having now furnished proof conclusive that Schopenhauer was wrong, and that in this optimistic land the old world need not fear to be presented with, figuratively speaking, a black eye, let's get cardinal points of misery are to be poor, ugly, stupid and good."

Now, here is one of the greatest causes for optimism. As extinct as the proverbial Dodo is the human being possessing all four of the above enumerated characteristics.

FRANK HANSON.

We Have a Sweet Tooth

California has a sweet tooth. To all who disbelieve this statement, the seventh biennial report of the State Bureau of Labor Statistics is offered as evidence of the desire for candy on the part of native sons and daughters. Twenty-eight candy manufacturing concerns reported to the bureau during the two years ending December 31st last, and these twenty-eight paid out no less than $1,191,000 in wages alone. Laborers alone received $78,000 from the establishments. Another feature of the report is that practically all the laborers engaged are over 18, and that the women outnumber the men almost two to one.

Sales Managers' Convention

National Sales Managers' Association of America in annual convention in San Francisco appointed a committee to draft a resolution to congress to the effect that if the La Follette's seamen's bill is enforced the American flag will be driven from the seas. The association elected these officers: M. Louis Wooley, San Francisco, international president; W. L. Bilzer, Seattle; E. S. Daniels, London; B. P. Neff, Duluth, and D. G. Parker, Dallas, vice-presidents; R. E. Rose, New York; A. C. Secrest, Cleveland, and A. Y. Soule, Los Angeles, directors.

NEW GAME LAWS LOOKOUT SAVES
EFFECTIVE ON BARLEY FROM AUGUST 7 BURNING

Hunters will be able to shoot rabbits in California for six days, beginning August 1. Then they must "lay off." They can begin shooting rabbits again on October 31, according to the new laws.

A 1915-1917 game card received by Hill & Walker this morning from the State Fish and Game Commission states specifically that the new laws go into effect on August 7.

This is taken by County Game Warden W. E. Adkinson to be final and authentic. Word received several days ago from the Los Angeles office of the Fish and Game Commission was to the effect that the new laws would go into effect on August 10. In view of the fact that the new game cards, which are printed at the state printing office, say that August 7 is the date, this must be taken as final, in the view of Game Warden Adkinson.

The exact wording on the fish and game cards follows: "Laws enacted in 1915 go into effect August 7, 1915. Prior to that date consult 1913-14-15 posters and cards."

As the old law states that the rabbit season opens on August 1, rabbit hunters will be able to shoot the bunnies until and including August 6. At that time the new laws go into effect and the new laws state that the rabbit season opens on October 31. It closes on December 31.

For the past few weeks opinions have differed as to when the new game laws went into effect. Various dates were given, from August 7 to August 10.

U. S. Smelting Dividend Passed
United States Smelting Company has passed the dividend on common stock. In explanation the directors say: "While the earnings of the company for the last quarter have been very large, the directors feel that these earnings are to a great extent the result of abnormal conditions resulting from the war. It seems sound policy and for the best interest of the shareholders to allow the working capital to increase substantially before taking action on the common dividend."

Farmers Canal Victor
The Commissioner of the General Land Office has decided in the contest between the California Development Company and Imperial Water Company No. 5, involving a right of way for a canal, in favor of the latter.

The forest service lookout on the top of Old Saddleback was partly responsible for saving about $700 worth of barley from burning on Bert Gibson's lease on the O'Neill ranch last Saturday. The lookout spied the smoke, the fire having started from coals left by a baling outfit. He telephoned to Forest Ranger Stephenson at El Toro. Stephenson called up William Waller at Slicer & Waller's ranch, and then started for the fire. Waller got his employees started toward the fire, and then went horseback over the hills. He arrived just in time to beat the flames out as they were within a few feet of a setting of barley, waiting for the thresher, and a pile of sacked barley. Other firefighters soon arrived and the fire, which had burned over about seven acres, was put out with no damage done.

Thrown Against Side of Car,
Joseph Hoff Receives Injury
Causing Death

Joseph Hoff, formerly a resident of Santa Ana, was killed in Baltimore a week ago yesterday. He was riding in the back seat of an automobile as it turned a corner of a brick street. The street was wet and the automobile skidded. Hoff's head struck against one of the bolts that held the top, and the injury was such that Hoff died about four hours later.

For many years Hoff was manager of the Great Eastern, a dry goods store. The store was sold by him about nine years ago to E. S. Gilbert. News of Hoff's death was received by John Beatty from Hoff's brother.

AT WARREN HOME

Engagement of Popular Santa Ana Maiden Told at Delightful Lawn Fete

The beautiful lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Lea Warren on North Parton street, with its shrubbery, fragrant rose arbor and hedge of brilliant red geraniums, made an ideal setting for the delightful fete given by Miss Marjory Magee, and Miss Grace Patterson of Huntington Park, two very close friends of Miss Ruth Collins, the honoree of the evening.

Varicolored Japanese lanterns fluttered gaily among the branches of the walnut trees, which canopied the merry scene. Hammocks and easy chairs were provided for the comfort of the guests, small tables being utilized for a series of entertaining games, suggestive of romance.

Late in the evening a delicious collation of fruit salad, cheese straws, olives, sandwiches, ice cream and cake was served and at this time the engagement of Miss Ruth Collins and Mr. Jesse Hardy of Fallbrook was cleverly announced, the dainty sandwiches being decorated with two tiny red hearts bearing the names of the prospective bride and groom.

Place cards were designed by Carson Smart and brought forth peals of merriment for this young "cartoonist" had used great ingenuity in characterizing each guest.

In behalf of the company, Mr. Smart presented the winsome bride-to-be with half a dozen individual casseroles for which Miss Collins prettily thanked her friends.

At the close of the pleasant hours, when "good nights" were being said, the honored guest was generously showered with rice, Leroy and Martin Warren, two popular prospective benedictors, also being included in this demonstration of friendly regard.

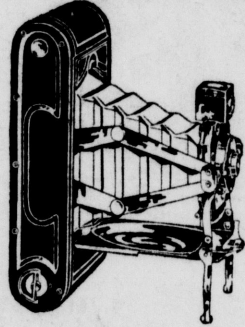

Birthday Celebration

Little Miss Rosalie Doyle was made very happy Friday afternoon by her mother, Mrs. L. M. Doyle, who planned a delightfully informal celebration in honor of her sixth birthday.

After a merry frolic out of doors the children were invited into the dining room, where a birthday spread was enjoyed. Pink and white roses decorated the pretty table and a beautiful white frosted birthday cake, gleaming with tiny pink candles, proudly proclaimed the age of the small honoree, the darkened room making this feature more effective.

Among the little folks who joined in the afternoon's fun were Mary and Lou Pomeroy, Mildred Tummond, Lois Perry, Josephine Taylor, Stella West, Hazel and Ladine King, Rosale and Dolores Doyle.

HERALD WEDDING

College Friends Enjoy Reunion Honoring Miss Helen Austin

Wedding bells will chime in the early autumn for Miss Helen Austin and Mr. George Ash, two popular young people of this city, and Saturday Miss Marguerite West entertained with a delightful 1 o'clock luncheon complimenting the charming bride-elect.

The affair marked a pleasant reunion of Pomona College friends, the hostess and guest of honor having been chums through high school and college days.

An effective color scheme of pale green and white was developed in the decorations. A snowy wedding veil, lined with light green, was suspended from the chandeliers above the prettily-appointed table and from the clapper a shower of white ribbon streamers formed a canopy over a cunning kiewpie bride and groom. The bride was attired in trailing wedding veil, wreathed in orange blossoms and carried an arm bouquet of lilies of the valley while the lucky kiewpie of her choice wore a conventional black dress suit with high silk hat and cane.

Place cards in Cupid design dangled from each water glass. But cups were in the form of white roses, nestled upon green leaves and green shaded candelabra illuminated the merry scene.

More winsome little waitresses could never have been found than Misses Elizabeth Millen and Martha Oakes, who faultlessly served the delicious four-course luncheon. Miss Elizabeth's fluffy brown curls were tied with a bow of light green with sach of similar hue while ribbon of the chosen color caught up the golden curls of Miss Martha, whose sash exactly matched. Both were clad in dainty frocks of white.

In the afternoon the party drove to the lovely new bungalow on Spurgeon street which Mr. Ash is building for his bride.

Those enjoying this pleasant reunion were Miss Helen Austin, Miss Lillian Reid of Long Beach, Miss Mary Hatch of Alhambra, Miss Florence Wheeler of Los Angeles, Miss Irene Cogswell of El Monte, Misses Veranda Williamson and Hester Billingsley of Orange, Miss Helen Bacon and Mrs. Arthur Briggs of Claremont, Mrs. Ross Roth of Pasadena and the hostess, Miss Marguerite West.

JOLLY "WIENIE" BAKE

The Misses Thomas Are Hostesses at Merrymaking at Laguna Beach

Misses Gladys and Beulah Thomas, whose delightful hospitality is so often enjoyed by their many friends, entertained with a jolly wienie bake at Laguna Beach Saturday evening.

The obliging father of the hostesses, Mr. Frank Thomas, and Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Price were the genial chapter-ones, three auto loads of young people sharing the evening's fun.

After spending an hour at the dancing pavilion, a big campfire was built on the sands and here wienies were roasted and coffee made, which, with the addition of buns, pickles and delicious salad, abundantly satisfied the keen appetites aroused by the drive to the beach.

The return trip was made by moonlight, the merry-makers including Misses Marguerite Wallace, Ruth Richards, Beulah and Gladys Thomas; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Deardorf, Messrs. Chas. Swanner, Loftus Morrison, Harry Whitman, Roy Osborne; Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Price and Mr. Frank Thomas.

"Swap" Social

Torosa Rebekah Lodge invites Sycamore members and visiting members to bring a package to the "Swap" social to be held Wednesday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall.

A merry evening is anticipated.

PLEASING RECITAL

Musical Ability of Former Santa Ana Girl Is Highly Praised

The following clipping from the Walla Walla, Wash., Union will be of interest to the many friends of Miss Nell Waite, a former Santa Ana girl who graduated from the local high school in 1907:

The last of the series of four graduating recitals given by students of Whitman Conservatory was given Tuesday night in McDowell hall by Miss Nell Waite. This hall was filled with an appreciative audience representing the most musical folk of the city. Miss Waite is a pupil of Mr. Sterling and from her many successful appearances in the past as a pianist, her recital last night was looked forward to with great anticipation, and the high expectations were in every way justified. In addition to her fine and clear technique, Miss Waite has the gift for interpretation and a fine sense for beauty and tone; though the work required heavy contrast there was never any roughness and at times her passive work displayed a most bewitching delicacy.

The Prelude and Fugue by Bach was very clearly and sympathetically rendered. The performance of the Beethoven Sonata displayed an intimate knowledge and at times considerable individuality of interpretation. Particularly well played was the Revolutionary Etude of Chopin, which, in view of the general conceded difficulty of the piece speaks very highly for the accomplishment of the performer. The Schumann Romance was played with considerable poetry, and the Hark, Hark, the Lark was delightfully fresh and delicate. The Brahms Rhapsody is a powerful number and requires mature musicianship for an effective rendition, and Miss Waite was equal to the occasion. The Concerto by Liszt which formed the closing number, was accurately and brilliantly rendered. It is one of the great tasks in the pianist's repertoire, and a successful rendition of this work is certainly all that can be desired in the way of demonstration of pianistic ability.

The orchestral part was played on the second piano by Mr. Sterling and added greatly to the success of the performance. This marks the last appearance of Mr. Sterling as a member of the conservatory faculty, and certainly was a worthy combination of this artist's serious endeavors in behalf of music in this city, which cannot be too highly praised.

1. Prelude and Fugue, F sharp major Bach (No. 13, Vol. 1, Well-Tempered Clavier.)
2. Sonata, E flat major Op. 27, No. 1 Beethoven
3. Andante Liszt
4. Allegro molto e vivace Liszt
5. Allegro vivace Chopin
6. Two Etudes Op. 10, No. 11, E flat major Chopin
7. No. 12, C minor (Revolutionary) Chopin
8. Romance, F sharp major Schumann
9. Hark, Hark! the Lark, Schubert-Liszt
10. Rhapsody, B minor Op. 79, No. 1 Brahms
11. Concerto, E flat major Liszt
12. Allegro maestoso. Tempo giusto. Quasi adagio. Allegretto vivace. Allegro marziale animato. Miss Waite, who graduated recently from the Conservatory of Music of Whitman College at Walla Walla was formerly a pupil of C. A. Gustlin of the Orange County Conservatory and was well known in this city by a host of friends who join in congratulating her on her successful musical career.

Miss Waite is now teaching in Seattle, the assistant of Mr. Sterling, her former professor in the Whitman Conservatory.

The young couple have a host of warm friends who extend a shower of good wishes.

A Delightful Day

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hannah entertained a company of congenial friends yesterday at their hospitable home, 602 West Second street.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Lyric
Real tobogganing, skating and ice-boating scenes are featured in "The Snow Girl," an unusually realistic and thrilling three-act drama of the north woods at the Lyric Theater tonight. The wintry scenes were filmed during the last heavy snows in the Adirondacks and it makes an especially appropriate picture for the hot days. Brinsly Shaw, Glen White and Mildred Manning enact the leading roles in which timber sharks attempt to swindle an invalid out of valuable property. It is a splendid picture and the many thrilling and picturesque scenes are worth many times the price of admission.

The special added attraction is "For the Honor of a Woman," the fourth narrative of "Under the Crescent," in two acts. An amusing comedy, entitled "A Skin Game," with Fritz Brunnet completes a high-class program of photoplays.

BULLETS SLIDE DEFTLY AROUND MAN'S RIBS

While Julian Teran is in the County Hospital with two bullet wounds making life miserable for him, Juan Razo is trying his best to get to Mexico. Razo has good reason to believe that he fatally wounded Teran. His intentions were that way, but he failed.

One bullet entered Teran's left side. It plowed through the flesh outside of the ribs and came to a stop just under the skin on the right side a foot from where it entered. Dr. Zaiser cut the bullet out. The second bullet struck on the right ribs and went upward. It is still in the man's body. Neither bullet entered the chest cavity.

Teran and Razo had an altercation on a street at Dyer. Teran threw a rock at Razo, and Razo replied by throwing a couple of bullets into Teran.

Sheriff Jackson, Under Sheriff Iman, Deputies Cravath and Eells searched for Razo. They found that he had changed his bloody coat and shirt at his home and had gone. Though it was broad daylight, and dozens of Mexicans were around, he left the vicinity. The officers have information showing that he is going south.

BURGLAR ENTERS HOME AT WEST ORANGE

Yesterday afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock a thief walked boldly into Mrs. George Slocum's home at West Orange and robbed it of jewelry, a kodak and twenty-five cents.

Miss Slocum left the house about 4 o'clock and went to a neighbor's. She returned at 5. The house, which had not been locked, had been entered, as she soon found when she went in and saw that it had been ransacked.

Under Sheriff Iman, who investigated, learned that a man had been seen walking back and forth in front of the place about the time the burglary occurred.

The list of stolen articles includes a lady's gold watch, gold Florida pin, two gold lavallieres, gold beads, Eastman kodak, a gold chain and a small purse containing twenty-five cents.

LOS ANGELES TO CALL ELECTION ON $2,750,000 ROAD BONDS

The Board of Supervisors of Los Angeles county is considering the calling of an election for the purpose of voting bonds in the sum of $2,750,000 for the construction of a number of canyon highways and the completion of the harbor truck boulevard. A discussion of this proposition was made at a special order of business for the meeting of the board to be held today, and the chambers of commerce in Los Angeles county, the Automobile Club, and other leading civic improvement and commercial bodies have delegates in attendance at this hearing.

Los Angeles county was one of the first counties in the state to construct a good roads system, having voted $2,500,000 in bonds in 1908 for the construction of 60 miles of highway. The rapid development of the county following the completion of the highway system has very effectively demonstrated the value of the expenditure.

There is, however, a large amount of new and undeveloped territory and a wealth of mountain scenery which will be reached by the proposed highways.

The roads which it is proposed to improve are:

San Gabriel canyon, from a point near Azusa to the Antelope valley, near Big Rock creek, then west to Palmdale, a distance of approximately sixty-three miles, at an estimated cost of $950,000.

Arroyo Seco canyon from Pasadena to Palmdale, forty-four miles, $850,000.

Mint canyon from Sangus to the Antelope valley, connecting the road now under construction from Palmdale to Lancaster, thirty miles, $200,000.

Harbor truck boulevard from Los Angeles through Compton to the harbor, 15 miles, $400,000.

Pico boulevard from Los Angeles to the sea, four miles, $45,000.

Coast road from Venice to Manhattan and Redondo Beach, two miles, $30,000.

Road from the Valley boulevard near Pomona, through Brea canyon and connecting with the Orange county highway system, six miles, $65,000.

Supervisor Hunsaw also suggests that an effort be made to secure from the federal government a large tract on each side of the proposed canyon roads, to be used for county park and camping purposes.

THREE ON VERGE OF DEATH FROM DROWNING AT NEWPORT

Otto Lades and William Brooks, both of Newport Beach, had a narrow escape from drowning late Saturday evening near the wharf at Newport. Tempted by the warm night and the bright moonlight the two young men decided to take a dip in the surf about midnight and accordingly went into the water alone at that hour. Although both of the men are fair swimmers they were carried out by the tide into the deep water. Their frantic cries for help at length were heard from the shore by Leonard Stone and H. N. Patterson, who immediately launched the lifeboat and went to their assistance. The exhausted swimmers were rescued only after a long, hard fight and brought safely to shore where they were soon revived sufficiently to take their way homeward.

Seized with cramps while in bathing directly after eating a hearty meal, Jack Smith of Olive narrowly escaped drowning in the surf in front of the Newport Beach bathhouse at about noon yesterday.

Smith is a good swimmer but be-

A Weak, Nervous Sufferer Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Kasota, Minn. — "I am glad to say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done more for me than anything else, and I had the best physician here. I was so weak and nervous that I could not do my work and suffered with pains low down in my right side for a year or more. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now I feel like a different person. I believe there is nothing like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weak women and young girls, and I would be glad if I could influence anyone to try the medicine, for I know it will do all and much more than it is claimed to do." — Mrs. CLARA FRANKS, R. F. D. No. 1, Maplecrest Farm, Kasota, Minn.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should be convinced of the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health by the many genuine and truthful testimonials we are constantly publishing in the newspapers.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (Confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

came helpless when but a comparatively short distance from shore. His cries attracted the attention of the crowd on the sands. A boat was immediately launched by H. N. Patterson of Newport Beach and William Hatley of Santa Ana.

Smith's struggles made the work of rescue difficult. After a while, however, Patterson and Hatley succeeded in getting Smith aboard the boat and bringing him to shore. Smith was unconscious. A pulmotor was brought up and after a short time Smith regained consciousness.

Smith had swallowed but little water. The physician in attendance stated that Smith had entered the water too soon after eating and that he suffered an attack of cramps as a result.

LAST NIGHT'S ALLEGED ELOPEMENT FOLLOWS MARRIAGE HERE

If the Los Angeles police had known what appears on the marriage license records here they would have had an explanation last night to a reported elopement. The times this morning has the following:

"Police detectives throughout the city were notified last night, to be on the lookout for Lorraine Rowe, a 16-year-old girl of Watts, and Herbert Holman, 18, also of Watts, who their parents think eloped early last night.

"According to Mrs. J. R. Rowe, mother of the missing girl, young Holman has been calling at her home for over a year. Last night he came to the house and declared that he and Miss Rowe were going to church. Some time later the mother became suspicious and went to the girl's room. All her clothing was gone.

"When the young people did not return from church, both Mrs. Rowe and Mrs. Holman hurried to the Los Angeles Central Police station and reported the matter."

Saturday morning a marriage license was issued here to Lester H. Holman, aged 19, and Lorraine M. Rowe. The girl's age was given as 18, and each gave residence as Los Angeles. A woman who gave her name as Mrs. Elsie M. Huber was here with the couple and signed a consent for the marriage of Holman. Mrs. Huber said she was Holman's mother.

U. S. BIRD MEN APPROVE PLAN GLENN MARTIN ADVOCATES

SAN DIEGO, July 26—United States army aviators were interested today in the statement of Glenn Martin that he had developed a plan to make the aerial torpedo boat a practical actuality and to render harmless the most formidable submarines.

Army aviators say Martin's idea of attacking a submarine from the air is entirely feasible, providing atmospheric conditions are favorable; that is, if the sea or waters of the harbor in which the submarine is moving is free from haze.

Flying at an altitude of from 1000 to 2000 feet, military aviators declare that a submarine can be sighted in clear weather at a distance of from two to three miles and at a submerged depth of from twenty to forty feet, depending upon the coloring of the water.

In flying over the waters of San Diego harbor during mine-laying practice at Port Rosencrans, the aviators at North Island have been successful in locating every one of the mines. The aviators aver that these mines could easily have been destroyed.

Naval officers pointed out today that the new three-inch disappearing guns designed by the Bureau of Ordnance, to be placed in United States submarines of the M and N types will not only be available to use in an attack on an enemy's craft, but will have such a high angle of fire that they will be effective against all classes of aircraft.

The officers admit that of most of the navy's submarines would be helpless under present conditions, if attacked by an aeroplane when coming to the surface.

Submarines in the German navy and also in the British navy, it is known, carry three-inch and four-inch guns.

The first disappearing gun for use on an American submarine was shipped to New York from the navy's gun factory July 12, to be installed aboard the submarine M-1. The new gun is said to weigh with its carriage only 1800 pounds, and automatically disappears into the submarine after each discharge.

ORANGE HIGH SCHOOL TO ADD EQUIPMENT

Orange News, July 24: The high school board last night called for bids on machinery for the manual training department which, it is estimated, will call for an outlay of about $5,000. Bids will also be received for building a greenhouse for the agricultural department estimated to cost about $500.

Estimates on the budget for next year were made up and it was figured that $40,000 would be needed next year. It was decided, therefore, to ask the supervisors to levy a sufficient special high school tax to produce a revenue of $20,000, the revenue from the regular state and county taxes being depended upon for the remainder.

It was decided to adopt the system of half-yearly promotions, a matter which has been under consideration for some time.

Your Profits

You doubtless have a good location, a good store, good goods, good clerks, and good customers.

Yet, your net profits on the amount of business you did last year were not so great as you had expected.

It may be because you lack the best method of taking care of your money and your accounts.

If you can get such a method and increase your profits, it would pay you to do so.

Do you know all the sources of loss in your store? Do you GUESS about them or do you KNOW?

BILLBOARDS AID IN FIGHT TO STOP DRINK MISERY

LONDON, July 16.—(By Mail).—If printers' ink induces men to join the army, why not utilize it to make them stop drinking?

Following the example of the War Office in conducting its recruiting campaign by means of advertising, temperance advocates propose to correct the effect of the drink evil on the output of munitions by similar means.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, who devised the scheme, is now raising funds for the placarding of the districts most concerned with posters reading thus: "Drink to you means death to our soldiers."

"They gave up their lives for you. Won't you give up your drink for them?"

"The sober workman fights for Britain. The drunken workman fights for Germany."

"You will be healthier without drink—you will be happier without it—you will be richer without it. Sign off for the War."

Said Sir Arthur, explaining his plan today: "I want to make it impossible for a man to enter a saloon without his eye meeting a reminder of his duty to his country and his mates in France."

One Million Slain
British statisticians estimate that the total military power of Germany and Austria-Hungary at the beginning of the war was 12,000,000. Of these men it is calculated that between 4,000,000 and 5,000,000 have been rendered useless for military purposes by death, wounds, illness and capture. There are supposed to be about 4,000,000 Germans and Austro-Hungarians on the east front, about 2,000,000 on the west front and over 1,000,000 in the interior of the two countries. On the basis of the number of British slain—50,000—it is estimated that the number of slain in the Teuton armies is more than 1,000,000.

Bay City Exports Increase

FATHER STARTS ACTION FOR POSSESSION OF A DAUGHTER 4 YEARS OLD

Today a writ of habeas corpus was applied for by William T. Brown, who seeks possession of his 4-year-old daughter, Bonnie Clara Brown. It is alleged in the petition that the girl is in the possession of J. A. Campbell of Orange, and that Campbell plans to move out of the state.

SAN LUIS REY SUGAR BEET HARVEST IS COMMENCED

Sugar Content Reports From Oceanside Are Low—Output Comes Here

Oceanside Blade: The sugar beet harvest in the San Luis Rey valley began Thursday, the first beets coming from the W. D. Ambrose fields. Two cars went out Friday totalling eighty tons and from eighty to one hundred tons will go out daily from now on to the end of the harvest, which is expected to last about three months. The acreage at San Luis Rey is about 700 this year, the smallest for several seasons and a yield of about 8000 tons is counted on from the valley.

Last season the first car went out July 25, so this season will beat it by two days. While this year's returns in tonnage are showing up satisfactorily the saccharine test is lower than last year though only field tests have yet been taken and factory returns may show a better percentage as is often the case. The field tests run from 16 to 18.5. Purity is well up, being an average of about 80 to 85. The present hauling is from the Ambrose, Whelan, Mayhew and Russell fields.

The beets from the San Luis Rey valley go to the factory of the Co-operative Sugar Company at Santa Ana which started up Tuesday. Factory men said the appearance of the beets in the fields is apparently better than the average of recent years and good season is looked for by both growers and factory.

Beet plowing is going on on the Santa Margarita ranch and the first cars are expected to go out Monday. The Santa Margarita beets go to the factory of the Southern California Sugar Company at Santa Ana which operates the dumps at Las Flores, Ysiora, Chappo and Ranch House. Three men from the factory operate each dump, one to weigh, another to dump and a third to sample for sugar content and to take off the tare of dirt. The crop on the ranch averages better than last year but the acreage under cultivation is not as good owing to the increase in bean planting. The help this season is almost wholly Hindus who are said to have proven more reliable than Mexicans, many of whom were formerly employed in the beet fields.

HELL'S HUNDRED CENTER OF BIG FIGHT TO END SMUGGLING

LOS ANGELES, July 26.—"Hell's Hundred" is what old-timers call the 100 miles of Mexican border between Tia Juana and Mexicali, the "two toughest towns" on the American continent.

And on that 100-mile stretch—America's last frontier—a handful of United States inspectors is today fighting a guerrilla warfare with scores of white, black and tan smugglers whose sole object in life is to beat Uncle Sam's custom laws. They have been fighting the war for months. The end is not in sight.

Far away from telegraphs and telephones there are almost daily skirmishes. They never break into the newspapers. Gangs of frightened, sheeplike Chinese are rounded up sometimes while the agents attempting to sneak them over the border flee with bullets dropping above them. Desperadoes with automobile cargoes of opium match their motors against the ponies of the inspectors and again the bullets drop. Battles have been fought in the desert mountains and in the alkaline beds of dried up oceans. Occasionally someone is killed, or a batch of prisoners captured. But the censorship of lonely wastes devoid of telegraph or telephone proves a stronger bar to news than the censorship of Europe.

The war is directed from Los Angeles. "Jack" Elliott, collector of the Port of Los Angeles, is commander-in-chief. He sits in his office and gets reports. He issues secret orders. Sometimes bronzed youths with bandaged hands or heads confer with him seriously. Once every few weeks he sheds his business suit, dons khaki and a sombrero and disappears, to return awhile later, sunburned, saddle-sore and determined.

"The boys are doing well," he says. It means volumes. It means that here and there along the empty stretches at "Hell's Hundred" young Americans are slowly trotting their horses, or making their blanket beds with the sky for a roof and the moon for a lamp, slithering by night and sweating by day, always alert for the purr of a distant motor, the flash of light on the horizon that means smugglers, Chinks—and a fight.

Most of the smugglers have their headquarters in Tia Juana, fourteen miles from San Diego, or Mexicali, 100 miles east. Both towns are on the California line. They are utterly beyond all law. Their denizens always face toward California, for to cross the line with contraband means profit. And between these two outposts of Gehenna and civilized Southern California is the prosaic jitney busses and its little green bungalows there is nothing but this thin line of bronzed young horsemen who watch and fight, take bullets and give them, twenty-four hours a day, unknown and unapprehended.

FATE OF HEWES PARK IS LEFT IN SERIOUS QUESTION

Intention of Owner to Give Beauty Spot to County Was Never Carried Out

What is to become of Hewes Park? With the death of David Hewes last Friday night comes the probability that Hewes Park will pass into history. Those who knew David Hewes intimately know that it was his intention to make a gift of the park to the county. He died without doing so.

Many thousands of dollars were spent in the establishment and up-keep of the beauty spot on the Hewes ranch at El Modena. It is a spot to which hundreds of visitors go each month. The title to the park now stands in the name of the David Hewes Realty Company. That company was incorporated on March 6, 1915, with David Hewes of El Modena, Donald Barker of Los Angeles and M. J. Reid of San Francisco as the directors. The articles state that the purpose of the incorporation was to acquire the Orange county ranch, the store and office building at Sixth and Market in San Francisco and the stock of the David Hewes Company, which had property in Los Angeles, and other property belonging to David Hewes.

It is reported that the transfers of property as outlined took place. The realty company will continue to have charge of the property probably until such time as the executors take charge. They will then continue to act through the realty company until the stock of that company is ready for distribution in accordance with David Hewes' will, which was written a good many years ago, before Hewes' park was a reality.

A new will was in the process of being prepared, but it was never executed.

The articles of incorporation of the David Hewes Realty Company on file in the county clerk's office here shows the company to be capitalized for $1,000,000, of which $999,800 in stock was issued to David Hewes, $100 to Reid and $100 to Barker, who was attorney for the pioneer.

David Hewes had not counted upon death coming so soon. He sincerely believed that he had several years of life left to him. Though 93 years of age, he had a number of projects under way that would have taken months to complete. Recently he employed R. G. Frasier of Pasadena, the landscape gardener who was employed in the Busch Gardens, to lay out and oversee the construction of an addition to Hewes Park. The grading for this addition is well under way, there remaining about two weeks more of work to complete it.

No plans for the management of the 820-acre ranch in this county or for the management of other properties owned by the realty company have been announced. It is stated that under the old will, which will probably prevail in the settlement of the estate, Frank P. Flint, former United States senator, of Los Angeles, and Granville Abbott of Oakland, both grandnephews of Hewes, are named as executors.

It had been Mr. Hewes' intention to build a new Presbyterian church at Tustin. Last Easter he gave to the congregation a deed to a lot adjoining the church. The lot on which the church is built was deeded to the church by him in the eighties.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT JITBUS DRIVER IS NOT CAREFUL ENOUGH; COSTS HIM $10

Incident of Collision of Machine With Hay Rack Recited This Morning

This morning H. D. Bryant was fined $10 by Justice Cox on conviction of having driven an automobile with due care to the safety of others. Bryant was driving a jitbus from Newport Beach to Santa Ana. City Clerk Vegely was a passenger. At Delhi a load of hay was standing beside the road on one side, and about forty feet further north was T. F. Brooks' empty hay rack. Brooks' hay rack was on Bryant's left side. Brooks testified that the jitbus swerved across the street, struck his team and hay rack, sending a beam from the rack through the rear of the automobile.

Water Gates
A warrant has been issued for the arrest of A. W. Smith on a charge of changing water gates of the Yorba Linda Water Co. The complaint was sworn to by E. R. West.

Again in Trouble
Manuel Munoz, a soldier returned from the Mexican wars, is again in trouble. Several months ago he came home from Mexico and found that his wife had given him up for dead and had married again. He was disposed to kick up a fuss, and was arrested. He promised to cause no more disturbance. It is declared that he forgot his promise, and went to the former wife's home yesterday. Deputies Cravath and Maxwell took him to jail.

Charge of Theft
Herman Krueger has sworn to a complaint charging Gregorio Herrera with stealing a bicycle from him. Herrera has pleaded not guilty, and his trial is set for August 4.

For Non-Support
Deputy Sheriff J. R. Fowler on Saturday arrested Austin Litchford on a charge of non-support. The complaint was sworn to by Mrs. Litchford, who lives in Santa Ana. Litchford has been at work on the San Joaquin ranch.

CONTRACT QUESTION BEFORE THE COURT IN TRIAL TODAY

Judge Thomas today is taking evidence in the trial of the action of H. G. Lembeck against Eyrard Bros., an action that involves payment for work done on a fertilizer house at Orange. Buying a HOME.
Did you ever know the satisfaction of living in your own home?

The contentment of knowing that you are building up something for yourself instead of each month paying tribute to some landlord?

The same sums you now pay out for the privilege of living in somebody else's place will put your own roof over your head.

And the result—at the end of a few years you will have a deed worth twenty-five hundred or three thousand dollars instead of a bunch of worthless rent receipts.

Let me show you this—$2500.
